

WANT TO SEE BABY; CANNOT WORK

Board of Health Cuts Short Business Session to See "Newly-Weds" at Theater

Board of health members were very uneasy in their seats Wednesday evening, "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" with and all the pretty nurse girls at The Grand Opera house, proving too strong an attraction, to permit members to attend the routine.

The board granted a plumber's license to the Genseley Plumbing company, listened to the reports and quit.

During March there were 61 deaths in the city, 28 males and 33 females, according to Dr. Da Hinden, health officer. Among the causes were: Tuberculosis, 3; apoplexy, 5; heart disease, 5; pneumonia, 10; Bright's disease, 3; railroad accidents, 2.

City Physician Post made 62 calls and had 94 office visits.

Dairy Inspector Bowman examined 115 cows, visited 8 dairies, inspected 25 produce stands, discovered 2 sick animals and ordered 1 killed.

Sanitary Officer Thompson put up 6 quarantine cards and took down the same number; put up 11 scarlet fever cards and took down 5; fumigated 11 dwellings and 45 rooms; inspected 168 rooms; removed 22 dead animals; investigated 127 complaints and sent out 46 notices.

Plumbing Inspector Coffman reported: Permits issued, 107; certificates issued, 52; inspections made 151; water or air tests made, 77; final inspections, 48; changes ordered, 12.

"THE NEWLYWEDS."
As funny as ever, "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" appeared at the Grand Wednesday night for the second time this season and drew an audience larger than the one which greeted the players on their first appearance in Canton.

Leo Hayes was seen as Ferdinand Newlywed, the father. He has lost some of his power to amuse since last seen here. James E. Rosen played the part of the baby in his usual entertaining way. Leona Stephens was Dolly Jolly, Mrs. Newlywed's sister, and Olga Von Hatzdelt was Mrs. Newlywed.

The choruses were up to the high standard maintained throughout the Social and Club Affairs

Mrs. Henry L. Betz of 703 North Walnut street entertained at luncheon Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the private dining room of the McKinley. About fifty guests were present. Jonquils and narcissus were used effectively for the table decorations and were used as individual favors. After luncheon the guests played point euchre. Mrs. C. W. Potter won the first prize, Mrs. Louis Paar the second and Mrs. T. B. C. Voges the third. The consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. DeWitt Chapman. Mrs. H. W. Alden of Detroit the guest of Mrs. W. C. Green, was an out-of-town guest.

FAREWELL DINNER.

The members of their club honored Miss Estella Best and Miss Minnie Langebaugh, who leave soon for European tours, with a dinner at the McKinley Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Covers were laid for fourteen. Pink and white carnations and ferns in a pretty arrangement were used for the table decorations. The favors were small dishes of bon bons in pink. After dinner point euchre was played. Miss Erma Shanafelt and Miss Frances Turin of Louisville won the prizes. Those present were: Mrs. P. Q. Shraake, Miss Minnie Krebs, Miss Erma Shanafelt, Miss Crena Turin, Miss Ida Krebs, Mrs. W. H. Hug, Miss Frances Turin, Miss Tillie Motter, Mrs. Howard Lytle, Miss Mamie Dwyer, Miss Florence Miller, Miss Lillian Shanabruck, Miss Bast and Miss Langebaugh. Miss Bast will sail April 23, returning in July, and Miss Langebaugh will sail May 19 and return in October.

HONOR PARTY.

Mrs. Edward P. Morrow entertained informally in honor of Miss Jennie M. Chance of 1419 North Cleveland avenue, whose approaching marriage to D. Harry Chandler of Vineland, N. J., has been announced. The guests were a number of the immediate friends of Miss Chance.

WILL GIVE LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Joseph DeWeese of 805 West Lake street and Mrs. W. Curt Smith of 829 Plymouth place have issued invitations for a 1 o'clock luncheon to be given Saturday afternoon, April 23, at the McKinley. After luncheon point euchre will be played. About eighty invitations have been issued.

ROYAL PRINCESS CLUB.

Mrs. Leonard Shaub of 712 Pennsylvania avenue was hostess to the members of the Royal Princess club at her home Monday evening. Progressive euchre was played during the evening. The hostess served luncheon at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Daniel Schaeffer of 502 Pennsylvania avenue will entertain the club Monday evening, April 18.

GICKER-HOSSMAN.

Miss Chloe Gicker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Glicker of 303 Center street, and William Hossman of Conneautville, Pa., were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Rev. E. B. Townsend, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church, who was the officiating minister. Unknown to the bride and groom a number of friends witnessed the ceremony from the dining room. They escorted the bridal party to the car when they left for a short trip to Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will reside at 802 Correll street.

SIS HOPKINS CLUB.

The Sis Hopkins club was entertained by Miss Nellie Dice of 1007 Lafayette avenue. After a short business session the evening was spent in playing games. Miss Helen Kesel and Miss Lula Sammet won the prizes in a contest. Miss Cora Huth of 715 Sandal street will entertain the club in two weeks.

CARNATION CLUB.

The Carnation club gave a dance Tuesday evening at Houser hall. One hundred and twenty-five couples were in attendance. Norwood's orchestra played for the dancing. There were several moonlight dances and a special feature was several songs, sung to the accompaniment of the orchestra during the dancing. The next dance will be given May 3.
